6. The method (s) used by Bristol Community College to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under CRRSAA and ARP (a)(1) and (a)(4) programs: Students attested electronically that they were Title IV eligible and needed help to cover costs such as food, childcare, healthcare, and technology related to the disruption of campus due to COVID-19. Factors taken under consideration included how many credits students were taking as well as financial need. Please note that these calculations were universally implemented; no one with the same calculation would have received more or less than others with the same requirements. Students are then
